Before application of measures stipulated in Articles 14 and 15 of this Agreement, the Contracting Parties shall intent to solve mutual disputes through direct consultations in scope of the Working Group for improving trade-economic cooperation and perfecting mechanism of trade of Intergovernmental Yugoslav-Russian Committee for trade, economic and scientific-engineering cooperation, established according to the Agreement between the Federal Government of the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia and the Government of the Russian Federation on establishing Intergovernmental Yugoslav-Russian Committee for trade, economic and scientific-engineering cooperation of 24 August 1994 (hereafter referred to as: "Working Group"), aiming to finding mutually acceptable solution.

The Contracting Party that brought decision on starting procedure that precede introduction of anti-dumping, compensatory or special protection measures provided in Articles 14 and 15 of this Agreement should inform on that other Contracting Party and send it information provided by legislature of the state of the Contracting Party that started the procedure.

240. LAW ON RATIFICATION OF THE AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT OF THE FEDERAL REPUBLIC OF YUGOSLAVIA AND THE GOVERNMENT OF THE RUSSIAN FEDERATION ON FREE TRADE BETWEEN THE FEDERAL REPUBLIC OF YUGOSLAVIA AND THE RUSSIAN FEDERATION

If the Contracting Parties cannot find mutually acceptable solution in term of 30 days from the start of consultations in scope of the Working Group, the Contracting Party that started procedure, preceding implementation of anti-dumping, compensatory or special protection measures has right to apply, after carrying out of adequate procedure, measures to cancel harmful consequences or threat that the harmful consequences shall occur, and shall inform on that other Contracting Party.

Scope and duration of above mentioned measures shall be limited to that what is necessary to eliminate damage. While choosing measures stipulated in Articles 14 and 15 of this Agreement Contracting Parties give advantage to those measures inflicting least damage to achieving aims of this Agreement.

In extreme circumstances, when prolonging of applying of measures stipulated in Articles 14 and 15 of this Agreement can lead to damage that can be hard to compensate, the Contracting Party, that started procedure of applying of protection measures, can apply temporary measures before making consultations, under the condition that consultations shall take place immediately after applying of these measures.

Article 17

Failure to Meet Obligations

If one Contracting Party considers that the other Contracting Party failed to meet certain obligation from this Agreement, it can, after the end of consultations or after expiry of the period of 3 months from the date of informing the other Contracting Party, undertake necessary measures for cancellation of circumstances of inflicted damage.

Article 18

Influence of Balance of Payment

If one of the Contracting Parties has serious difficulties of the balance of payment or there is danger of appearance of such situation, it can implement restrictive measures, including those that concern import of goods and are of limited duration, until those difficulties persist.

That Contracting Party should timely inform the other Contracting Party on intention of implementing above mentioned measures of limitations and on period of their duration and cancellation.

Article 19

Evolutionary Clause

If one of the Contracting Parties considers expedient that provisions of this Agreement should widen to other fields of trade-economic cooperation not stipulated by this Agreement, it shall provide to the other Contracting Party documented suggestion. When that suggestion is accepted this Agreement can be amended, according to legislature of the Contracting Parties.

Article 20
